Grand Total in 1907.......161,781 210,199 82,988,156

Our work in Japan and China is making splendid progress. The schools are exerting a mighty influence on the rising generation. They supply many of our best native teachers and evangelists. With our large and commodious buildings we are now in a position to accomplish a great, work in the future. For teachers and scholars we should daily pray, for the guidance of the Spirit into the truths, that will make men wise unto salvation.

The General Synod has fully endorsed the forward movement in our foreign mission work. If the actions of the Synod shall become effective it will be necessary to send forth at least five missionaries to Japan, and a number of lady evangelists. This will increase the annual expenses of the Board, and the members should see that the funds are forthcoming.

During the past year twenty-three Bible women were engaged by our Japan Mission. Ten of these girls graduated from the Miyagi Girls' School in 1907. They have the love of Christ in their hearts, and through that love the desire for service in His Kingdom. The Bible Woman is an important factor in the Sunday School. She visits the sick and comforts those in sorrow. She also has charge of the Women's Prayer Meeting and the Sewing Circle, in which they find room for a busy and faithful work. The cost of a Bible Woman is about $50 per annum.

The Industrial Home at Sendai, Japan, has housed sixty-six young men as boarders in 1908. Nearly all come from the country, and afford a great field for the training of native Christian workers. They earn their own way through North Japan College.

Members frequently ask—To what special object can we contribute? That will depend on the amount they wish to send. Here are a number of "Specials":—

Now is the time to start a Mission Study Class. You cannot spend your time more profitably or pleasantly. Any member who will study the book, "The Why and How of Foreign Missions," by Rev. A. J. Brown, D. D., will receive a valuable fund of information. In the degree that we know the needs will we give of our means towards their relief. Write for particulars to the Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions, Rev. Allen R. Bartholomew, D. D., Reformed Church Building, Philadelphia, Pa.

Is your name among the 7,000 Ten-Dollar pledges towards the Thankoffering Fund of the Board of Foreign Missions, in honor of its Seventieth Anniversary? If not, begin the New Year by sending it.

"How much owest thou my Lord?" This is a fair question. Have you anything in body, soul or spirit that you did not receive from the Lord? We owe all to Him whose we are, and from whom flows every blessing. He asks a share of His bounties to us. Let us give of our substance, and thus honor God, and help His cause in the world.

The Christians in China need the help of the churches throughout the world. There is in China about one missionary to 100,000 people; for the most effective work it should be one to every 25,000. The annual increase of Christians in China is about 25,000, while that of the population is 4,000,000. Surely the need for more workers is apparent.

The Church and the Emigrant.

John Calvin.

Twenty-seven missionaries have passes to Ellis Island. They represent all religious denominatons and enjoy equal privileges. They are among the first people, except officials, whom the immigrants meet on arriving in america. They are a help to those about to land, and afford especial help and comfort to those who are detained to await investigation or deportation.

There are priests and rabbis and ministers of all sorts, and to see them at work for the immigrants is to make you think a little portion of the millennium has come to Ellis Island. Here is a rabbi helping a Greek Catholic; a Catholic priest listening to the story of a distressed and bewildered woman whose language he can speak, but whose faith is dfferent; and there are Protestants asking no questions of sect or creed, but only how they can help. The government encourages the missionaries of all denominations, and affords them an equal opportunity. Many a man finds his introduction to America more pleasant and is put in the way of receiving good influences through their labor.

July 10th, 1909, will be the 400th anniversary of this great Reformer's birth, at Noyon, in Picardy. His admirers all over the world propose to celebrate this day. A committee of our General Synod prepared an elaborate program of suggestions for its fitting observance by our churches. The Reformed Churches of Europe have made special arrangements for honoring Calvin's memory at this time.

Among all the Reformers he stands foremost as a thinker, as an exegete, as a constructive theologian, as a leader of men. Back of him was no glamour of being the embodiment of the national spirit, as in the case of Luther.

"The nations which fell under the sway of Calvin's system became the stout defenders of civic liberty, of constitutional rights over all human despotism. The man who firmly plants his feet on the rock of divine sovereignty cannot be afraid of anybody, whoever he be, in whose nostrils is the breath of life. Do we wonder that the fourth centennial of the birth of such a man stirs the pulses of men to quicker action?"

THE NEW DEACONESS HOSPITAL, CLEVELAND, O.

With its old indebtedness liquidated and its modern and complete equipment, this institution, under aggressive management, has a future full of promise. The building, facing Franklin Ave., at West 34th St., has a brick exterior in the Italian style of architecture. It is fireproof and of re-inforced concrete construction. Administration quarters are located on the first floor together with three wards accommodating 24 patients. The second floor is devoted to private rooms for 18 patients. Operating rooms, doctors' preparation rooms and laboratories occupy the third floor. Service facilities are provided for in the basement. The hygienic features of the hospital are noteworthy, particularly the elimination of all unnecessary mouldings and corners, and the pleasing and restful color-scheme obtained throughout.

A REMARKABLE CENTURY.

Dr. Daniel Dorchester says that the last century was the most remarkable of all centuries, and the church has made splendid gains. He says: "When this century opened only 364,872 evangelical communicants were enrolled in the churches of the United States, dwelling chiefly along the Atlantic seaboard, except a few straggling behind the Blue Ridge. Now this class of communicants numbers over 18,000,000. Besides them are nearly one million 'non-evangelicals' and ten millions of Roman Catholics, over twenty-eight millions in all. Here is a fifty-fold increase in the evangelical communicants, while the total population of this country increased fourteen-fold."

CENTRAL THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

This Seminary, located at Dayton, Ohio is now better equipped than ever before for its great work. It is of vital importance that the young men of the Reformed Church be influenced to fill the depleted ranks of the ministry. The University and Theological Seminary provide the necessary training for efficient service. Pastors, and Christians in general should concentrate their prayers and efforts upon securing recruits from among our choicest youth. The Reformed Church believes in an eduated, trained ministry. The activity of lay members is very important, but the pastor being their teacher and leader is largely responsible for the character and progress of the Church. To the Theological Seminary is largely committed the preparation of the pastor. The character of the Theological Seminary is therefore reproduced in the pastor and again the character of the pastor is reproduced in the Church. Hence the Church builds up her own life and power by carefully providing for and maintaining the Theological Seminary. Whatever may be the vision and design of the Theological Seminary in its effort to provide an adequate ministry, the same is made possible only by its faithful support on the part of the Church.

The Reformed Church needs more well prepared pastors.

The Orphans

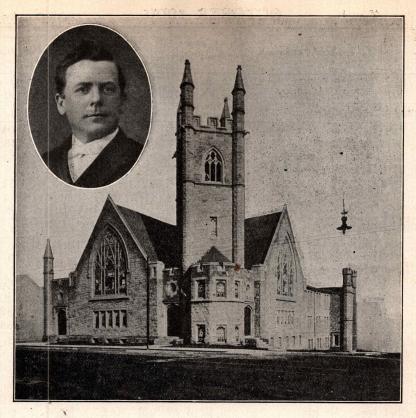

Our Church lays special stress upon its provision for orphans. Our homes at Fort Wayne, Ind., Greenville, Womelsdorf, Pa., and Crescent, N. C. are doing a noble work for these homeless little ones, and should receive most generous support from the Church at large.

Missions of which 71 are under the two German Boards, the Eastern and the Western, and the remaining 118 are under the General Board. The total membership in these Missions is 22,530. The Board owns property aggregating $780,000. It has invested in lots and in church buildings $252,000.

The Home Mission work consists of two parts, namely: the support of the missionaries, and church building. The money that is given for the missionaries is an outright gift, but money for building churches is a loan, and has to be returned to the Treasurer in due course of time. A Church-Building Fund is $500. or more, which is given by an individual, a congregation, a society, a classis, or by any other party. There are 222 of these funds at the present time, amounting to $130,000.

There are thirteen Missions among the Hungarians, and one among the Bohemians. These people deserve the care and attention of our Church because many of them belonged to the Reformed Church in their native land. We have also seven Hungarian students for the ministry in three of our institutions who are supported by money contributed for this purpose. A Hungarian Classis in connection with Pittsburg Synod was recently organized.

The benevolent contributions of these Mission Churches are encouragingly high. The Missions in the Interior Synod, consisting of 2,094 members, gave $4,643., an average of $2.21. The 2,850 communicants in the Potomac Synod gave $2,654., an average of $.93. The average in Ohio Synod is $1.08; that in Pittsburg Synod is $.95. The 4,090 members in the Eastern Synod giving $3,885, averaged $.94. In these five English Synods the average of all is $1.15. In the three German Synods, the average is as follows: 4,595 members in the Synod of the North-West gave $6,753., an average of $1.47; 1,323 members in the Central Synod gave $1,736, an average of $1.31; 1,804 members in the Eastern German Synod gave $780., an average of $.43. The average of the German Synods is $1.20, and the average of all the Missions in the eight Synods is $1.16.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR STATISTICS.

Societies, 70,404. Membership, 3,550,000. Net gain for year, 1,266 societies and 50,000 members. Members uniting with the Church in the last two years, about 450,000. Gifts for missions and other benevolences, $4,500,000. Next World's Convention, Agra, India, November 1909. American Convention, St. Paul, July, 1909.

Points now being specially emphasized:

I. Christian Endeavor Extension. 2. Missionary Activity. 3. Evangelistic training and service. 4. Citizenship and temperance. 5. A publicity campaign to increase the circulation of religious papers and missionary publications.

1893 is the exact half-way point between the founding of Christian Endeavor and the present.

At that half-way point, we find the United States containing 21,630 societies. The figures now are more than twice as great, namely, 44,500. Canada then had 1,632 societies, now it has more than twice as many, namely, 4,301. Alaska then had 2, now it has 20. Mexico had 21, now it has six times as many, 133.

Central America had none, now it has 24. South America had only 3, now it has 105. The West Indies then had 221, now they have 287. Cuba then had no societies, now it has 15. Porto Rico had none, now it has 5. Panama, of course, had none, now it has 2.

In the Madeira Islands there is one society, where in 1893 there were none; and one society in Iceland, where before none existed.

The great surprise is the British Isles. At the half-way point they were proud of their enrollment of 587 societies. Now they rank second only to the United States, with a total of more than 10,000 enrolled, with several thousand not yet on their official lists.

Progress of our Church

The Reformed Church has made marked progress in recent years. Within one generation the number of ministers has doubled, the number of congregations has more than doubled, and the benevolent contributions have more than trebled. In some of the larger towns the number of congregations has increased fourfold. The educational and benevolent work receives more liberal support than ever before. Many of our people have means which they wish to consecrate to God and his service and they are supporting the Church and her institutions with their money. Home Missions, Foreign Missions, Orphans' Homes, Ministerial Relief, Deaconess Work, Old Folks' Homes and Hospitals are being established and strengthened with the loving gifts of God's people.

Especially is this noticeable in the work of the Missionary Societies which are now so generally being organized by the various congregations. Through this agency God's cause has received much support in recent years. With a mission pastor in each pulpit and a Missionary Society, zealous for good works, in each congregation, our Church can be a great power for righteousness in this country.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY-SCHOOL DATA.

(Reported at Convention of 1908.)

Sunday Schools—170,028.

Officers and Teachers—1,594,074.

Total enrollment—15,110,172 members.

United with the Church (triennium)—903,-28.

Home Department membership—552,000.

About 20,000 Primary departments report separate rooms.

Our 9,258 teachers'-meetings is an advance of about 1,200 over former reports.

The total Sunday-school enrollment of North America is nearly 1,000,000 larger than it was three years ago.

A phenomenal three-years' work in the West Indies, resulting in seventeen fullfledged organizations and more to follow.

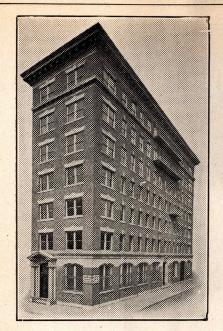

Over 49,000 Sunday-school Conventions have been held in North America during the past three years, attended by probably over 3,000,000 different people.

No department of the work has shown so great advance as the teacher-training. Probably no less than 80,000 are now engaged in studying teacher-training courses.

About fourteen new Sunday-schools a day for every day in the year is the net gain we report since our last Convention. This means 15,000 schools more than we reported at the last convention.

Over 19,000 Cradle Rolls are reported, which is about triple the number reported at Toronto, while the enrollment reaches the enormous figure of over 444,000, a gain of more than 100 percent.

116 Sunday-school general secretaries and departmental specialists are devoting their whole time to the work in the various states and provinces, and fifty-six are working on part time.

The Work of the Sunday-school Board

The Sunday School is the basis of Home Missions, Foreign Missions and of the congregation. It is the spring to the river. The immediate and continuous need for the spread of the Church is a base of supplies,both of money and of men. That supply is found in greatest abundance in childhood. It is the work of your Board to magnify this great truth. The Sunday School Board may well be called the Pioneer Board, because so much of its work for the children and foreigners of America is of a pioneer character. It may be called the Children's Board, because in so many ways it is ministering to the children, and it may also be appropriately called the Young People's Board, providing we give a broad significance to the term "young people," so that it includes all the younger members of society,—the children as well as the older boys and girls. It is preeminently The Sunday School Board, because it is so fully occupied with Sunday School work of all kinds, and represents the educational instruction in which the young and old alike are offered opportunities in Bible study. Christian training and Christian service. The boys and girls of today will be the men and women of tomorrow. What more important duty is given to the Church or to the Nation than to instruct and train these young people? Today we can gather them into the Sunday School and Young People's Society, and touch their hearts and mould their characters. Tomorrow it will be too late.

THE APPORTIONMENTS

The apportionment is the amount of money per capita which the several Boards of the church ask of the members of the church to carry on the work which the church expects of them. At each meeting of the General Synod the Home Mission Board, the Foreign Mission Board and several other Boards are asked to give an estimate of the sum of money they will need annually for the next three years to do the work assigned them. General Synod then considers these estimates, and finally votes such sums as Synod thinks the church should raise; the amount is frequently less than the Boards ask. General Synod then says what each Synod should raise of this sum and the Synods in turn apportion their amounts on the Classes and these at the next annual meeting apportion their part on the several charges. Thus an entire year passes from the time the apportionment is made by General Synod till the time when the congregations are asked to pay it.

The amount should be paid by every congregation, because it is much needed by the Board to carry on the work. Both the Home Mission Board and the Foreign Mission Board are involved in debt and are paying interest to the banks. This money would do more good if it could be used for the mission cause directly. And, secondly, it should be paid because it is asked by the several ecclesiastical bodies which are each composed of ministers and elders and which are therefore true representatives of the people. The members of the church should be loyal to their representatives.

In the Southland.

Over one hundred years ago many German farmers moved from Pennsylvania to North Carolina and Virginia. They secured land, built homes and also organized congregations. These people were the brothers, the sons and daughters of Reformed ancestry. The family names which are familiar in Pennsylvania are common in the Southland. Being an agricultural people, they remained largely upon the farms. Sixteen years ago there were only three towns in North Carolina in which there were Reformed congregations. Now the South is awakening to new life. Towns and cities are growing rapidly. Our young people are flocking to these industrial centers, and it is our duty to assist them in organizing congregations and building churches. Our Home Mission Work in the Southland is important and most hopeful.
